

TYPES OF AERIAL STEMS

The erect stem is a stem that rises upright without any support.

Latin:

erectus – having a vertical position

The climbing stem is a stem that needs support to go aloft.

English: cleave - to adhere

The procumbent stem is a stem that trails along the earth.

Latin: pro - forward;
cumbere - to bend